

Robert A W Pascal
General Manager

Robert earned a Bachelor's Degree in English Literature with minor concentration in Marketing and Business Administration.

He enjoys studying the classics, his favorite is Medieval Literature. He also enjoys reading and writing short stories.

From the time, he was a young lad, Robert dreamed of being in the hospitality business. Robert's mentor, grandfather & the present owner of our Harbour Inn, Robert A. Pascal, has inspired him to continue his legacy of success, leadership and integrity in life and in business. Robert aspires to transfer these principles to his role as General Manager. He will work tirelessly to ensure the satisfaction of every guest who walks through the door greeting them with a warm welcome and the best that the Harbour Inn has to offer.

Robert enjoys the outdoors. He is an avid hunter and fisherman while being a conservationist. He has a deeply rooted respect for wildlife. He is a sports aficionado, especially pro football. Robert loves to travel and knows the importance of choosing the right hotel.